Beechworth

Indulge and discover

Beechworth is one of the best-preserved gold rush villages in Australia and the whole place is testament to those beginnings, especially in the original government buildings that make up the Beechworth Historic Precinct. These days it's one of the High Country's favourite foodie destinations, home to a stellar line-up of award-winning chefs including Michael Ryan (Provenance) and Douglas Elder (Billson's) as well as nationally trailblazing microbrewery, Bridge Road Brewers. There are boutique distilleries, main street cellar doors and plenty of great places for coffee.
