

Yindyamarra Sculpture Walk

Kremur Street, Albury

Yindyamarra (Indyamarra), is a powerful value of respect; to be gentle, polite, honour and do slowly. It is the heart of our way of being and doing. Wiradjuri Law demands that we have profound respect for each other, and we do things slowly and with care.

As Aboriginal people we are drawn to the river, Milawa (Murray River). The Milawa is an old man of our lore, telling a thousand stories. Milawa connects us to our cousins up and down its 2,400 km chronicle.

The sculptures along the Yindyamarra Sculpture Walk resonate with the Milawa lore. The Milawa holds our history and inspires our cultural practices. We ask that you respect the sculptures and do not climb on them.

Sculptures

1. Teaming Life of Milawa Billa by various artists
2. Reconciliation Shield by Tamara Murray
3. Creature Seats by various artists
4. Googar by Darren Wighton
5. Wiradjuri Woman by Leonie McIntosh
6. Vertical Message Sticks by Girralang
7. Bogong Moth Migration by Ruth Davys
8. Family Gathering by Michael Quinn
9. Celebrate Together by Tamara Murray
10. The Big Picture by Katrina Weston
11. Leaving Our Mark by various artists
12. Goanna by Kianna Edwards
13. Maya Fish Trap by various artists
14. Guguburra by Peter Ingram

visitalburywodonga.com

1300 252 879

The Crossing Place Trail

Lemke Road, Gateway Island, Wodonga

The Crossing Place Trail follows the mighty Murray River along a 5.1km loop. Inviting you to pause and soak in the breathtaking vistas that have seen centuries of change. Discover original river crossings used until 1848 when a punt was constructed. In 1861, the first bridge marked history, yet the original crossings remained the preferred cattle route to evade tolls.

Be captivated by the sculptural works of local First Nations artists. Unearth the tale of Yarre the Mailman. Spot a scar tree. And delve into the importance of the billabong environment for First Nations communities. Look out for wildlife like platypus, dunnarts, water rats, and rare black-billed spoonbills.

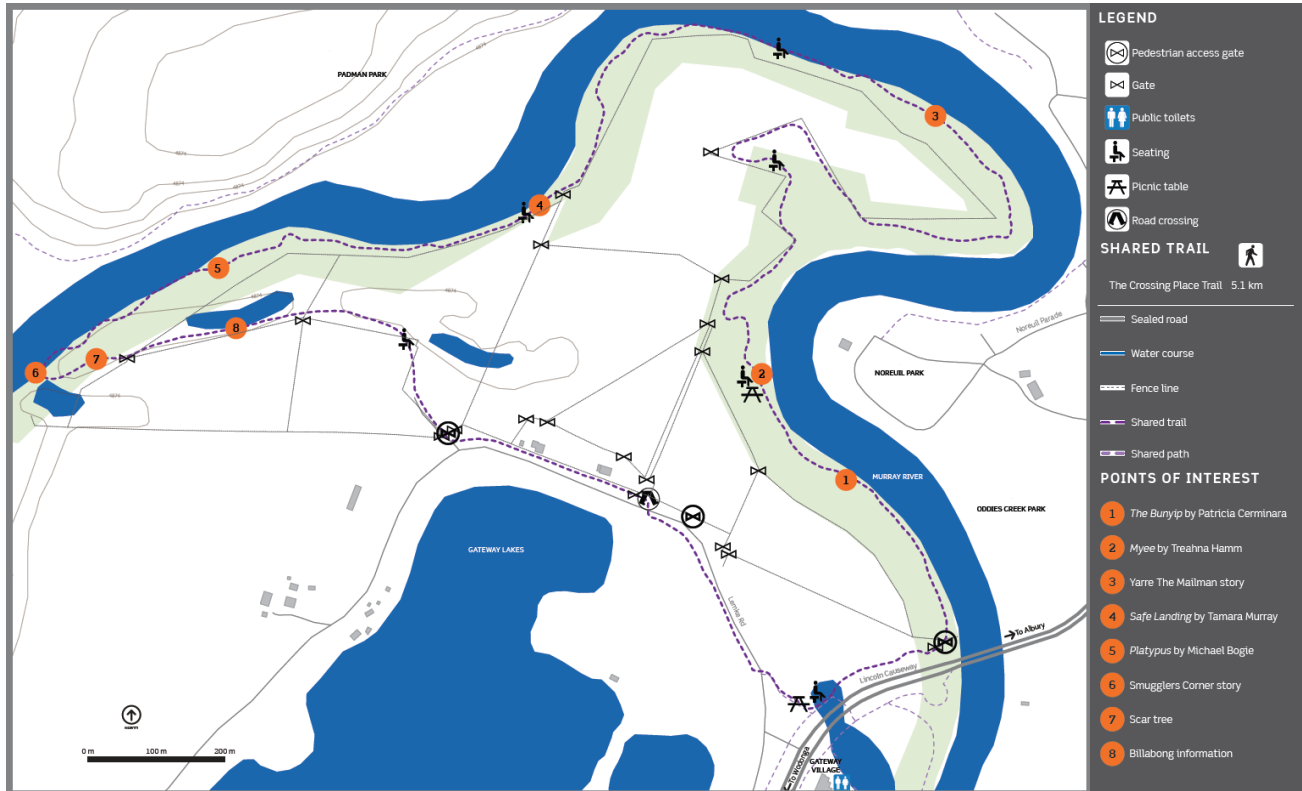

Whether you're drawn to history or captivated by nature's wonders, The Crossing Place Trail promises a magical blend of past and present.

Sculptures

1. The Bunyip by Patricia Cerminara
2. Myee by Treahna Hamm
3. Cumbungi by Glennys Briggs
4. Safe Landing by Tamara Murray
5. Platypus by Michael Bogle

Points of interest

6. Yarre The Mailman story
7. Smugglers Corner story
8. Scar tree
9. Billabong information

visitalburywodonga.com

1300 252 879